

Notice

Dear students,

It is a pleasure to inform students from all semesters at Impact Group of Colleges that free certification courses in Photography and Film Making are being offered by School of Journalism and Mass Communication, Aryabhatta Knowledge University, Patna.

Eligible and interested students belonging to minority community can join three-month long Photography and Film Making training courses for skill development, personal enrichment and practical knowledge. Please note that aforementioned training courses will only be offered to students, belonging to minority community. It is being made available free of cost.

Students are required to click on link <https://bitly.cx/C9Jt2> to gain access to further information, and act in accordance with suggestions, visiting the website.

Principal
Impact College, Patna

Principal