Notice

Dear Students

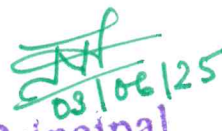

It gives us immense pleasure to inform all students and staff members that Impact Group of Colleges is all set to celebrate World Environment Day by organizing a poster making competition, sapling plantation drive and an anti-plastic awareness campaign at famous Patna Marine Drive on June 5, 2025.

The event, beginning at 8:30 AM, will primarily focus on curbing rising air pollution and encouraging students and others to avoid using plastic and its products, in alignment with the World Environment Day 2025 theme: "Putting an End to Plastic Pollution."

Event Guidelines, students are required to read carefully:

1. Only 6th semester students are allowed to participate in the World Environment Day celebrations.
2. Due to ongoing university examinations, students from other semesters are not permitted to take part.
3. All participants must strictly follow the College Dress Code. Any violation may lead to disqualification from the event.
4. Free transportation will be provided to all participants.
5. The college bus will depart at 8:00 AM from the City Campus, RPS More, Patna, to Patna Marine Drive and will return to the same campus after the event concludes.
6. Poster making and slogan writing competitions will also be conducted on the 4th of June from 11:00 AM onwards at city campus, based on the themes: "Need for Green Cover" and "Anti-Plastic Awareness."
7. Students interested in the competitions are advised to bring their own pens, pencils, colors, chart papers, etc.
8. Certificates will be awarded for the best motivational posters and slogans.
9. Students are expected to maintain discipline at all times and extend their full cooperation to ensure the success of the event.
10. Disciplinary action will be taken against participants found violating any college rules and regulations.

Enthusiastic participation and myriad support will be highly appreciated.
